

From: dbmoodb
Sent: Friday, 21 March 2008 7:06 PM
To: National Broadband Network Taskforce
Subject: I would like to see an open network.

I would like to see an open network, network neutrality, documentation, support for 3rd parties (community link ups), open access and personalisation of services. The network must allow competition - more than one company controlling it. User control of security and other features (optional blah).