

From: C W
Sent: Friday, 21 March 2008 3:39 PM
To: National Broadband Network Taskforce
Subject: Price and Technology of the new network

I support a new National Broadband Network that provides open wholesale access. However I'm doubtful that broadband price can be uniform across Australia, and across rural and urban users. Some small variation is natural and acceptable.

Also, the new National Broadband Network should not be limited to just one technology; wireless can be just as good for our Australia's wide and sparsely populated landscape.